Make Life Fun!

The Winter 2010 edition of Today's Transitions, a publication serving the Louisville, Kentucky area, features a piece on 'breaking out of the daily grind and doing things you love the most.' Featured on page 10 (and pictured below) is Lowrey player, an all-around great guy, Ron Kendall. Ron and wife Verna are charter L.I.F.E. members, prominent Derby City LIFE Members, and regulars at Central Music in Louisville.

The story offers a number of helpful tips on how to focus on the fun things in life. In the 'Learn a New Skill' portion of the article, Ron shares how he began playing at age 58 on the suggestion from a friend it would help with his medical condition. Both Ron and Verna joined classes at Central Music. Ron believes the playing to improve flexibility in his hands and both he and Verna point out the added benefit of the social side of sharing music with other students.

Heard 'Round L.I.F.E

The L.I.F.E. on the Wabash chapter, sponsored by our friends at Conservatory of Music in Terre Haute, Indiana are always busy in their community making music and lending a helping hand. Food drives, sponsoring community service events, and getting press in the local news media to name a few items. Late last year Janet and Chuck Harmon were selected for the Hamilton Award for Volunteers, a well-deserved recognition of their generous community contributions.

Sponsored by Maestro Music of Levittown, NY, the Melody Makers of L.I.F.E., in addition to their raucous monthly meetings, are presenting music concerts and introducing the Long Island community to the well benefits of making music. At a recent gathering they presented a session of 'Name That Tune' and are scheduling guest speakers for future meetings.

Critchett's Piano & Organ sponsored chapter, Harmony for L.I.F.E. are gaining somewhat of a celebrity status with their music making. Dirk Thieben of Critchett's reports the group's recent outreach 'gigs' have the joints jumpin' and everyone wearing smiles.

Judy Nobles reports from Loon-y Tunes for L.I.F.E., sponsored by Schmitt Music in Roseville, MN and shares news of their hugely popular (6th annual) Friends Playing For Friends Concert. 14 Lowrey players, a packed Schmitt Music auditorium and a North Suburban video crew made for an enjoyable afternoon of music. The video of the event ran numerous times throughout the following week on a local cable channel. And we just had to share this picture of Loon-y Tuner, Merry Fragomeni and her adorable granddaughters as they performed together at a Christmas event.
