A Lowrey Cocktail

At a recent Jersey Shore Chapter of L.I.F.E. meeting, L.I.F.E. members had a treat when fellow Chapter member, Don Bates, introduced his own Lowrey-themed version of "Moonlight Cocktail". The members of Jersey Shore Chapter of L.I.F.E. are kind enough to share Don's lyrics with us, so we all have the chance to try it out. Play it and you are sure to enjoy it! Make sure to sing it to the tune of "Moonlight Cocktail".

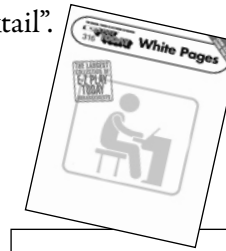

Lowrey Cocktail

Couple of jiggers of Rhythm with a catchy beat,
Pour in a medley of singles for dancing feet,
Mix in a few old favorites, than repeat:
Music lovers hail the Lowrey Cocktail.

Now add a couple of waltzes, a few will do,
Stir for 'bout an hour, you're right on queue,
Add several more measures, it's up to you,
Lowrey Cocktail – toast a few.

Cool it with a flurry of sharp keys,
Serve it in portions that will surely please,
Your listeners will be busy like bees,
Lowrey Cocktails will get 'em on their knees.

Follow these easy directions and you will bring,
L.I.F.E. of another complexion with a clever zing,
You will rise from the bench to loudly shout and sing,
Lowrey Cocktails are the real thing!

Find Moonlight Cocktail in EZ Play notation in Hal Leonard's "White Pages" song book, Volume #316.

Jersey Shore Field Trip

The Jersey Shore L.I.F.E. Chapter and Royal Music jumped in their cars and drove to nearby Rahway recently to tour an authentic theatre pipe organ. Originally installed at the Rainbow Room in New York City, the pipe organ was moved and reinstalled to the Rahway, New Jersey Senior Center. Not only were the Jersey Shore Chapter members treated to a tour of the pipe chambers and given the history and shown the mechanical workings of the grand old organ, they all had a chance to play it. Royal Music's owner and L.I.F.E. Chapter sponsor, Jeff Mazza stated, "This was a really fun and interesting field trip. We always have a great time when we get together and this gathering was no exception, as you can see from some of the photos of us getting our turn to play."

The instrument is maintained by the Garden State Theatre Organ Society.
