Avalon

by: Bil Curry

Written by Al Jolson, Buddy DeSylva and Vincent Rose, Avalon is a popular jazz standard recorded by many well known artists including Al Jolson (charted at #2 in 1921), Benny Goodman, Natalie Cole, Harry James, and Django Reinhardt with Stephan Grappelli.

The melody will move fairly slowly over the up-tempo accompaniment so don't worry about the fast tempo. It sounds impressive but it's easy to play once you get the idea.

Style: Gypsy Rag or Roadside Café.

Tempo: 180 to 190 (+/-) Start slower until you get the notes under your fingers.

Presets: Style Setup / Rhythm Preset Zero the first time through.

Press button #1 for the second time through. Go back to Zero (turn off #1) or use #10 for the last time through.

On the second time through, play all the notes Staccato (very short) and then transpose up 1/2 step for the third time through and play it as written. So let's have fun and Travel on to Avalon!
