Missouri Show-Me L.I.F.E.

The O'Fallon, Missouri organization, O'Fallon Supports Our Troops, was recently seeking donations in a community-wide effort to mail boxes of supplies to U.S. troops stationed in Afghanistan. Part of the National Day of Service and Remembrance, over 120 people turned out to prepare and pack boxes for shipping.

A Little Bit of Heaven

by: Bil Curry

It was 1914 when Ernest R. Ball and J. Keirn Brennan wrote this song. Irish vocalist, John Gary has a very nice version of it on YouTube.com. The original edition of the sheet music spells sure with an "h" (shure). Later editions drop the "h" but I kept it for our version. There was not enough room to print the music for the verse but the lyrics of the first verse are printed under the title to give context to the chorus.

Setup & Performance:

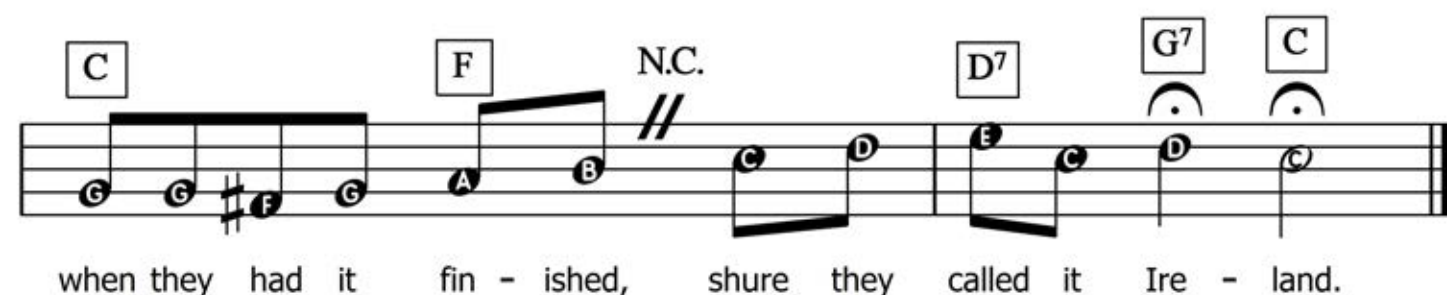

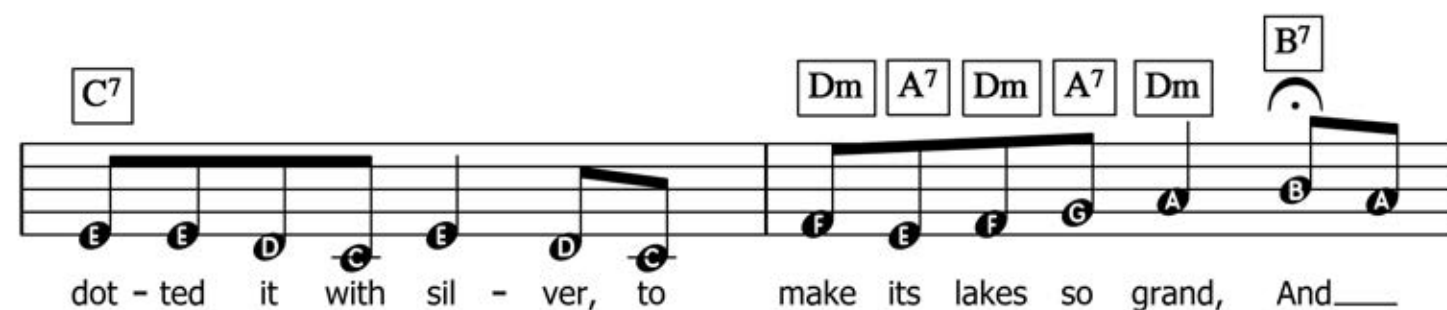

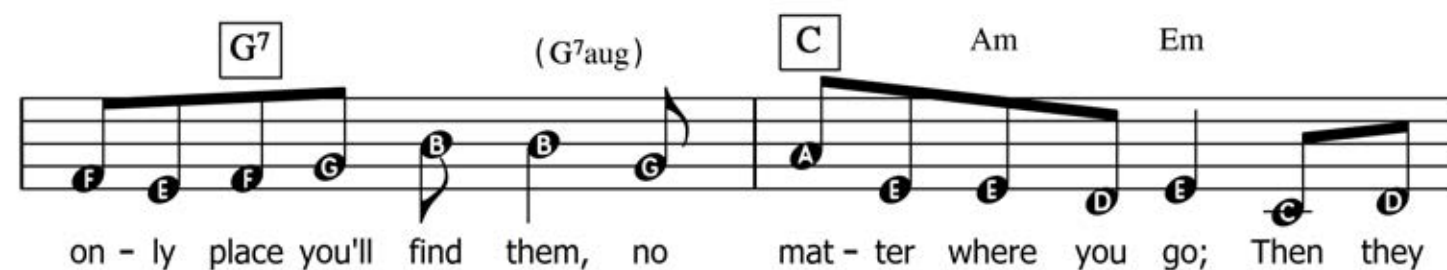

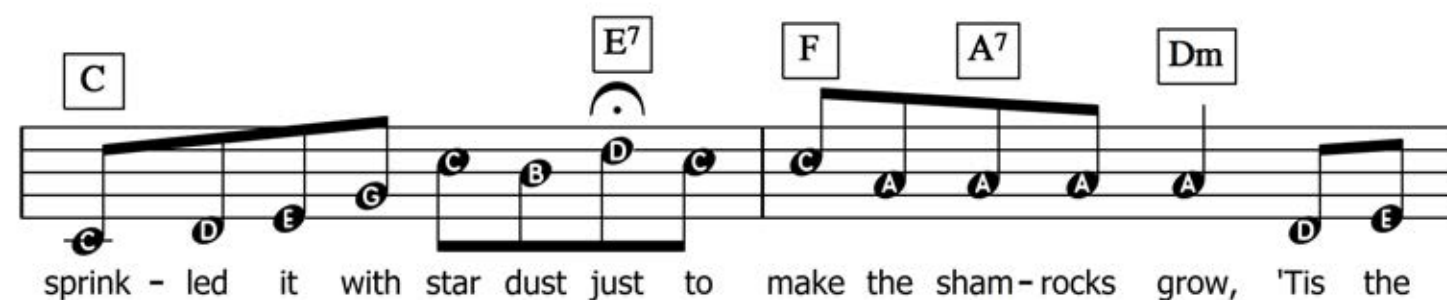

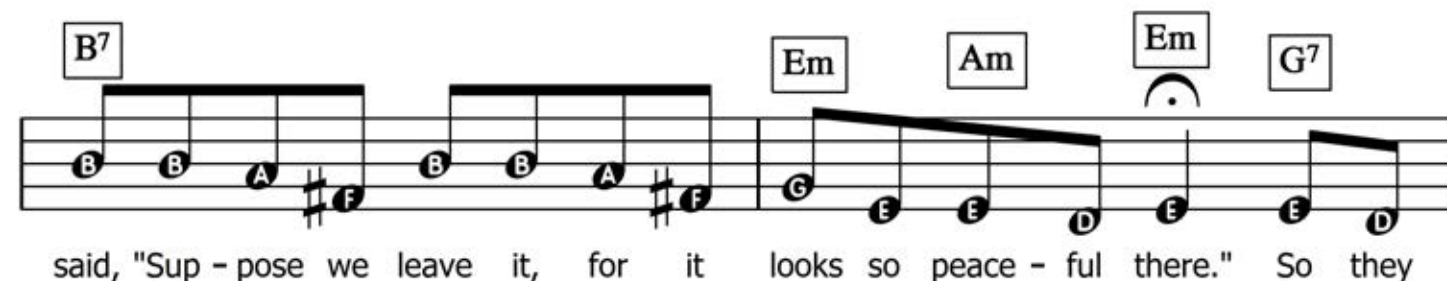

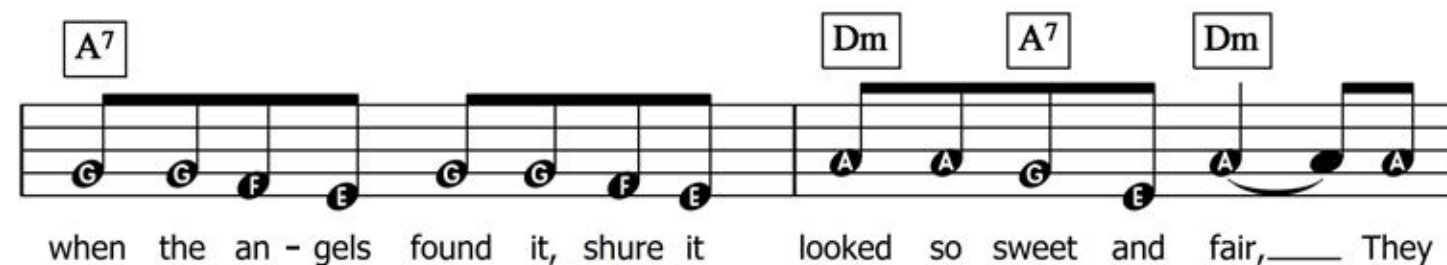

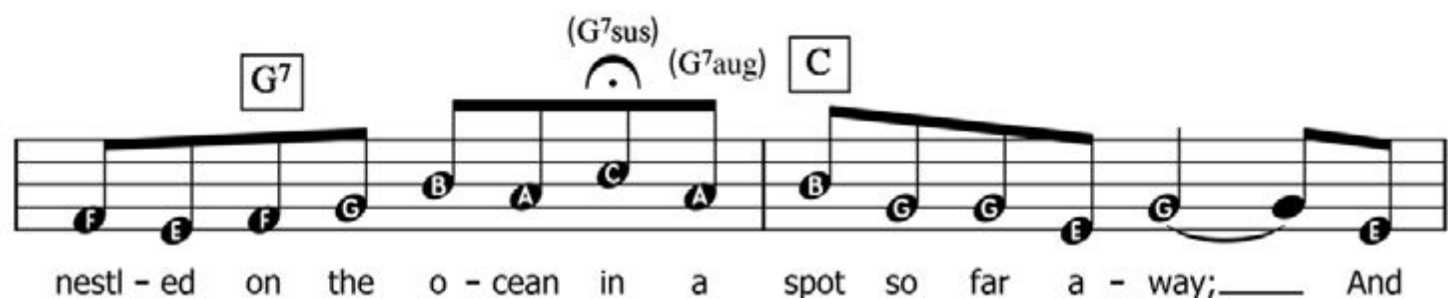

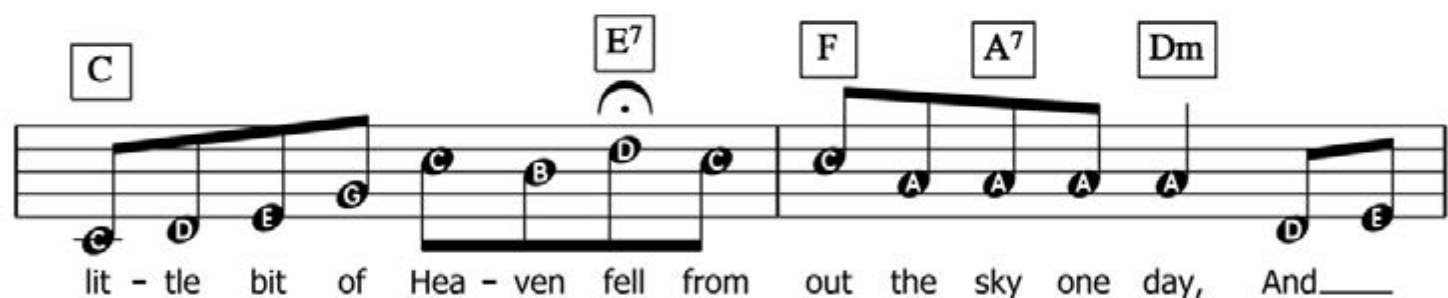

Use General Preset #1 (More Organ) or Setup #3 on the EZ10 & EY300 (Rich Organ) and add AOC harmony. Press the EASY button and do NOT use any style with this song but play it "with feeling". For instance, whenever you play a note with a fermata () also play the note after it just a little bit slower. At the end, stop when you play the "No Chord" (N.C. = E, F, F#, G) and then play the rest of the song slower and louder.

Shure They Call It Ireland

Music by Ernest R. Ball
Lyrics by J. Keirn Brennan

Have you ever heard the story of how Ireland got it's name?
I'll tell you so you'll understand from whence old Ireland came;
No wonder that we're proud of that dear land across the sea,
For here's the way me dear old mother told the tale to me:
